How did you find out about LPP? _____

Fostering a dog requires a large commitment of time and energy. Often while fostering a bond will develop between you and the foster dog that may make it very difficult to give up the dog to its new 'forever home'. Have you considered this aspect of fostering and are you prepared for this type of commitment and for letting go of the foster dog? Y/N

There are inherent risks in fostering a dog. LPP shall not be liable for any damages, injury or death resulting from the inherent risks of fostering a dog. No person fostering a dog from LPP or person affiliated in any way with a person fostering a dog from LPP shall make any claim against LPP, or maintain any action against LPP, or recover from LPP for injury, loss, damages or death resulting from any of the inherent risks of dog fostering. By signing below, Applicant acknowledges the inherent risk in fostering a dog and agrees to waive any and all claims against LPP as set forth herein.

By signing below, you attest to the truthfulness of the information that you have provided to LPP herein and otherwise. By signing below, you give LPP permission to contact your veterinarian and your references and visit your home prior to your approval for fostering. By signing below, you agree that if you provide any false or misleading information you may be disqualified from fostering and/or LPP may remove a fostered dog from your premises.

Thank you for taking the time to complete this application and for your interest in fostering a dog from LPP.
